Choose one of the following three assignments and submit your completed work to your teacher or email to museum@tutu.org.za

Assignment 1

You are learning about the rise of Nazi Germany and Germany's role in World War 2 in school. You are now (thanks to the exhibition) being exposed to Southern Africa's role in the War. Using this information, summarise (in 400-1,000 words) Southern Africa's response to the rise of Adolf Hitler and his regime. Was Southern Africa's role significant? Were there any examples of injustices? Explain your responses to these questions. The most informed and thoughtful entry wins!

Assignment 2

Imagine you are Lucas Majozi, a brave soldier from the SA Native Military Corps. Write a diary entry detailing a day of war in your life. You can express Lucas' diary entry in any form, such as a poem, a historical retelling, or a personal reflection. Your diary entry must not be longer than 150 words. The most imaginative and realistic entry wins!

Assignment 3

While viewing the exhibition, take a selfie in front of one of the displays. Post your selfie on our social media pages using the hashtag #TutuMuseumWW2 and tag @tutu_legacy_foundation. The most interesting and creative selfie wins!
